

Transformation planet on 2016-2017 The United States of America

Hi!

It seems that the speed of events have come faster than my typing, translating and posting. Anyways, I have set my astrology program to show me the transit planets at the end of this month.

As I described in the previous report, Pluto's position in the areas of; government branches, contract services, finances, and Inner health area will bring to surface the transformation of old laws. Pluto brings about deep cleaning. The death and rebirth not only in the US government, but also physically with the country's geological form.

Pluto's transforming powers is always strongly felt despite its physical size.

Aspects between planets and location on the houses.

Neptune is known as the planet of spirituality and deep meanings. It is occupying the house of communications in the U.S astrological map this year. The placement of this planet is making a trine aspect (is a positive one) with Pluto which means if this aspect is well used, misunderstandings can be clarified between neighboring countries and the population within the nation. If this communication is done by using two types of communication such as media and by in writing, it will bring better results.

The presence of the moon indicates sadness and loneliness. These feelings are present not only in neighboring countries, but also within the US. Neptune negative side tends to have unrealistic perceptions. Psychologically disturbed people will come to surface.

The aspect with the moon which activates creativity can also bring tons of anonymous threats in the form of letters. These letters will be sent to the United Nations and other judicial parties for clarification. Other letters will arise from the interpretations gathered by the general public in respect to their rights, such as the rights to protest.

Possible collective legal complaint arrived to the Supreme Court of Justice

There will be letters coming from different sources.

- One of the federal branches would receive letter regarding budget.
- Letters will come from a group of students about constitutional rights.
- A communication coming from a foreign country because it feels threatened.

Most of these letters or some form of communications are the result of misunderstandings. The position and aspects of planets and zodiac signs around these planet suggest to watch closely of old groups reorganizing similar to the groups during the 60's.

This aspect of Pluto and Neptune can be used in a constructive way. Disagreements can be settled by regarding new laws applying to internet use. There will be resistance however its benefits will ultimately be confirmed in the future.

Transformation planet on 2016-2017 The United States of America

Neptune the planet of meditation, introspection and spirituality dreams usually is not well used, because in times of change people demand fast results. In regards to the general public, the following is recommended.

- Avoid traveling over seas.
- Watch for coast flooding.
- Watch for the health of their elders.
- Try your best not to get distracted and watch your home budget.

There are 4 planets in transit in the area of the heart of the country. A large part of the U.S population can't find inner peace despite the efforts made by the government to ease conflicts expressed.

Mercury, the planet of the mind and air element together with Saturn, the moon and the Sun make the mind of the population restless. Also, the U.S president or the recent elected U.S president can be mentally drained, physically tired and his circulatory system affected by this transit. There will be a new activity supported by the government to entertain people by the end of this month possibly some kind of mission in order to help kids from other country or kids specifically in another state far away from New York. People will unite for this cause.

The overlooked of the planets arraignment at the end of this month chart, suggest that big changes in the justice department are going to bring balance or keep the U.S president in touch with reality. This can be good and also can be bothersome to someone who is used to managing errands for himself. Watch out for hidden enemies.

Chiron, the planet known as the wounded doctor, the wise and counselor is present on the house of Jobs, goals and recognition area which means there is a call to use the wisdom. The man who already has and managed is feeling of being a victim, someone who did the job, but now is being placed behind the curtain. This placement can trigger feelings of being under appreciated. Chiron creates enormous difficulty in the area of vocational exposure and status. Note that this transit planets are being analyzed by the end of this month of November 2016. Therefore, President Obama may be the person in charge feeling that his efforts are not recognized.

On the other hand, in the area of the public image, the elected U.S President Donald Trump is seen as different, new. This title comes with new job tasks and seems to be undergoing them with drastic and warrior-like conduct, because of his drastic approach to solve problems. Other countries can feel threatened by the speed and unexpected turns of events. The presence of the planet Mars fiery image and it is pointing at the Libra (the balance of justice) house can be interpreted as this fiery image with the perception of unfairness. This can be the basis of the letter expressing concern send to legal institutions.

Events to watch for.

- Positive outcome regarding Dakota pipeline conflict. Protesters should use an additional form of communication such writing a letter to voice their complaints.

Transformation planet on 2016-2017 The United States of America

- Increase activity in the Supreme Court of Justice mostly checking old laws.
- The people in the U.S with restless mind can result in domestic terror attacks.
- The closing cycle of one of the federal branches is either cut off or totally new.
- Watch for rising waters on the coasts of the U.S.

Thank you again for your time on reading these short analysis of the astrological chart of the U.S.
